Of
1976-77
Valiant, Enthusiastic, Spirited
The 1977 Totem Pole is dedicated to Miss Pat Sheley, senior sponsor, Language Arts teacher and one of Bonner High's own graduates.

Miss Sheley represents the Spirit of the Braves in every way—her enthusiasm for whatever is going on, her interest in school and community affairs and her sense of humor make her an outstanding senior sponsor, an exceptional teacher and a true Bonner Brave.

As a student at Bonner High she was very active in school organizations and activities. She represented Bonner as head varsity cheerleader during her senior year.

Miss Sheley joined the Bonner Springs High School teaching staff in 1968. Since that time she has been a Pep Club sponsor and is most widely known as the enthusiastic senior class sponsor.

Her dedication to the education of young people doesn't end in the classroom. Teenagers find their way to her house to discuss a variety of things with her and three of her valued summers have been spent touring Europe as a sponsor for a group of teenagers.

And so, with her record of loyalty, dedication and enthusiasm, we feel proud to dedicate the 1977 Totem Pole to Miss Pat Sheley.

McLaughlin Resigns
Due to an opportunity in business, Arden McLaughlin, counselor for 15 years, will be leaving Bonner Springs High School. This will be a great loss to our school.

New Face in Math
The new face in the Math Department is Mrs. Pat Houssler. Mrs. Houssler is replacing Mr. Griffith in teaching Algebra and Math. Mrs. Houssler is from Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.

Miss Ray Gets Married
If in the next few weeks you happen to hear of a Mrs. Miller, don't get confused. We have a new teacher, just a new name.

Open House
On Tuesday evening, Nov. 10, Bonner Springs High School held its annual Open House. The turnout was slightly smaller than previous years.

The BSHS faculty cooperated with the Kayettes to play a fundraising basketball game with the WHB disc jockeys.

Although Mrs. French stole the show with her springy moves on and off the court, Mrs. Reynolds, Coach Taylor, Mr. Mignot, Mr. Martin, Coach Nealy and Coach Smith, as well as Mr. Stokes, lead the points with the annual slave auction.

Teacher Visits Pyramids
On Jan. 5, Mrs. Mary L. T. took the students to visit the pyramids.
Some may think that a Board position is just an honorary title that means attending all functions and sitting in a special place. But not so with the members of the Board of Education for District No. 204. Attending one of their meetings means at least four or more hours one evening a month with one decision after another to discuss and make. Each member can be thanked for the “free” hours that he devotes to making the best decisions for the students in the district. We come first with them, and we know it...not only at their meetings but at all of our academic and sport functions.

A new addition to BSHS this year is Forensics. This is a club which Mr. Brown has coached before at another school and he has now started at Bonner. There are many different categories in which you can enter. These categories are: One-Act Play, Informative Speaking, Duet Acting, Prose Interpretation, Improvised Duet, and Improvised Drama.

How To Psych Out A Teacher

Up to her eyebrows in schedules, line-ups and forms, Miss Pat Sheley, senior sponsor, came to the Senior Breakfast to relax and enjoy herself. What she didn't know was that the beginning of the program was the dedication of the 1977 Totem Pole...to her! The well-kept secret nearly "undid" her!

Dee Valentine reads the dedication while Miss Sheley hunts frantically for a place to hide. Mr. Stokesbury asks her finally if she will be able to continue with her senior program.

Spirit Makers

As dedicated, hardworking cheerleaders, the Varsity squad proved to be an inspiration to other cheerleaders and the school as well. Their long and hard hours of service to our teams were often forgotten yet they never lost a stride. The experience they gained over the last years helped them in winning numerous awards at camp and school. Among their laurels they earned were 2nd place in the camp, runner-up in overall champions and earning two spirit stars, the most any squad received during a session. When basketball season was underway, they guided a spirited Pep Club to a 2nd straight sweep of the Tonganoxie Pep Section Trophy. These seven undertook an impossible job and came out on top. Fantastic, girls!

They were won by Dorothy Sprung, French horn solo; Kyla Stolfus, flute solo; the drum quartet of Russell Pino, Frank Keller, Matt White and Troy Sawalich; and by the Concert Band in sight reading. Bonner Springs High School is offering a one-semester, one-credit course for the 1977-78 school year. The course will be called "Students As Learners" and will be either a credit or a no-credit course.

In this course, the student will be allowed to set his own goals, do his own studies and design his own electives.

January to Remember

The winter of 1977 will be remembered for many things - snow, record-breaking temperatures, the natural gas shortage, one of the shortest Januarys in school history. Out of the nine scheduled school days (teacher meetings excluded) this school was out in the gas shortage.

Top Performers

Kyla Stolzus, sophomore, gave an outstanding performance at the KSHAA Piano Festival, Feb. 5 and earned herself a one rating.

The contest, held at Baldwin University, Baldwin, KS, was attended by high school pianists from many area schools including Shawnee Mission High School, Kaw, Washington, Ottawa, and Bonner Springs High School.

The annual Christmas dance turned out to be a success as usual.

Amid the glittering atmosphere of a Winter Wonderland, two hundred Christmas-spirited Braves danced to the music of "Shades of Madness".

Changing the tradition of the Pep Club banquet this year was not planned. Instead of the very elegant dinner in the Commons Area, with awards following, the spirited Pep Club of 1976-77 was hustled to the basement for shelter. Finally, after tornado sirens and warnings of "take cover" the membership grabbed their dinner and had their banquet with their usual enthusiasm in the publications room. The evening was an eventful memory.

Senior Men Learn Survival Techniques

Mike Grey discovers what it means to "gently simmer."

Senior boys fill up four classes of Senior Seminar a year in their effort to learn how to survive in the kitchen, laundry room and sewing room. They learn to shop for food and clothing, they learn to operate kitchen appliances to get the desired results with them and they learn to respect the "chores" of housekeeping as they never did before.

This is how you peel a potato—Sullivan style. Randy Sullivan puts the whammy on the potato and polishes it a pure white.

"Brian, that's not cake batter, that's paint," says Debbie Hendricks in dismay.

"All right kids, we paint on the paper, not on the walls and not on each other," Glenda Groves has learned to anticipate possibilities with Jennifer, Sammy and Heather.

Seeing ourselves as others saw us! Watching children grow and develop in just a few months time, teaches us about them and about ourselves. Our observations include the chores of watching the preschoolers, encouraging them and teaching them. And the pre-adult enjoys it as much as the pre-schooler.

"This is water! It is wet! We play in it but we don't drink it! And we don't SPLASH it!" With those instructions from Denice Foster and Jill Peters, Mike and Pat didn't know what was left to do. An Old Familiar Landmark

On a crisp November mid-morning, a landmark familiar to us all became a fully involved ball of fire. We watched the black smoke from the school and if time permitted and no one was watching, we got close enough to watch the fight between man and flames.

Mr. Jim Finley, sports writer for the Chieftain, presents the Athlete of the Year award to Darrell Anderson.

Annually, the Booster Club has a sports banquet honoring all the students who have participated in the sports activities. Coaches make speeches, letters are awarded and the Athlete of the Year in the boy and girl category is named and presented with a trophy. With this kind of community support, the Bonner Springs High School sports program is a big part of the school and community.
Mr. Finley presents the trophy to Carol Stephan as girl Athlete of the Year.

Without getting out of step, the Booster Club included an award for an outstanding girl athlete last year. It was with pride and with full acceptance that they supported the girls' sports program when it first came into being and as it developed. The girls do not feel out of place—rather they feel welcomed and comfortable.

Mrs. Pat Sears presents Carrie Nealy, Senior, with a letter.
The Sacred Order Of Injun Joe

Steve Shockey, the Brave who discovers the sky as he uses the limber pole. As though he had the wings of the swiftest bird, this Brave moves in flight with grace and endurance. Even his moccasins seem to have wings. His bearing is as bright and warm as the sun, and wrapped in his magic blanket, he is one of the most daring Braves on the reservation.

Here we have Darrell Anderson of the tribe of the night-prowling and lively jumping possum warriors of Delaware township. Darrell has roamed the halls of the Home of the Braves with a smile and a friendly gesture. On the courts and fields and lanes of Brave country, he has shown swiftness and a calm but powerful ability to put the foe on the run. His ability to rise above the floor—going to heights that no man has grown, has made him famous in the territory—a warrior of true Brave caliber.

Here we have Tom Lenahan who brings to Brave country the spirit of the smile and friendliness of a true Brave. With eye as clear as the eagle and a soft-spoken manner, this Brave has the charm and confidence which brings courage to all his brothers. His outstanding ability is his magic of optimism, always dauntless regardless of the opposition. The traditions and ceremonies of the Braves are a part of his everlasting display of Brave pride.

This Brave, Kevin Mills, is one of the rare examples of pure wisdom. Known as being wise as the owl, he has absorbed the cunning, foresight and shrewdness of the tribe and is known beyond the territory for his piercing intelligence. He has been heralded far and wide for his quiet clear-headedness and he has brought to the tribe of the Braves laurels aplenty for agile thinking.

To the soft, distant beat of the tom-tom, we come to the display of Brave power in Jim Weller. Here we have a Brave who has courage and swiftness of the Weller clan. On land and in the streams, Weller, the muskrat, is at home with his nimbleness and adaptability. Where else but in the Valley of the Kaw would you find a Brave of such courage and nobility. A loyal Brave, Weller is as fine a Brave as has ever sat in the shadow of the Totem Pole.

From the clan of Kobialka in the territory of Wyandotte along the Valley of the Kaw, we show you an example of a Brave of perfect dimensions. Kobialka, who saunters through Brave country as straight as the crow flies, has been endowed with agility and grace. On the battleground he becomes a warrior of power and swift flight, stalking the foe and scalping them with efficiency. The Great Spirit seems to assist him in the hunt and he has scalps and skins to prove that he is as fine an example of a Brave in moccasins.

An Unexpected Season

Again this year Bonner Braves, slated to finish at the bottom notch of the pole, proved undoubtedly that they cannot be counted out. With spectacular individual and team efforts the Braves convincingly scalped their opponents game after game. With seven scalps tied to their belts, the Braves reached the state playoffs. Although the Braves are losing much experience with the Seniors, the returning Juniors and Sophomores are still looking forward to an even more spectacular future.

Speedster Carrie Nealy bettered the all-time school record in the 220 yard dash. She also lends a helping hand on the mile and the 880 relays. Carrie traveled to State.

Flyin' Helene Kimbrough managed to come in 1st in almost every 440 yard dash. She also anchored the state mile relay team.

Carol Stephan, Bonner's 880'er, holds the school record and 2nd best mile title.
Golf comes late in the year and usually at the same time as the rains. But the Bonner golf team braves the wet and windy weather to give it their best effort. With only one Senior leaving, the golf team is hoping that the 1978 team will find a berth on the EKL championship roster.

Sophomores Move Into The Scene

In an effort to alleviate the "middle-child" syndrome among sophomores, Ms Lovelady has developed a "Sophomore Scene" bulletin board. The bulletin board includes photographs and newspaper clippings which represent the sophomore as an actively-involved class of young citizens.

Each week, Ms Lovelady gives special recognition to a particular sophomore who is named "sophomore of the week". His picture is featured along with a list of his hobbies, interests, activities, talents and philosophies.

This particular activity also helps Ms Lovelady to indulge in her favorite hobby, photography. She takes the pictures, develops them and prints them herself—a labor of love for her sophomores.

The Bonner Springs Federal Credit Union sponsors this page in honor of the Class of '77.

The Finale... Senior Breakfast

Four years are summed up at a senior breakfast. Along with refreshments is a sudden realization that this is it! The memories flood past us of the four years that we griped about but loved! And we suddenly knew that we wanted to leave but we didn’t want to! We just didn’t make sense!
We tremble with the excitement of graduation, cry with the sentiment of friends and fun we have had, laugh over the funny memories we will always cherish and we know that we will always be a LOYAL BRAVE!

Miss Pat Sheley, senior sponsor, tells us to be sure to take the diploma when it is handed to us.
Precious And Few

Patti Loggins and her date listen to the mystifying sounds of "Wings of Pegasus."

Brenda DeGroot and Kobi dance at prom—a night to remember.

Dancin' to the music...
Shelly Smith plays camera shy.

Terri Cooksey and Jay Delich—a picture of solemn seniority.

Brenda and Kobi boogying to the beat.

Far Right: Prom is a photographer’s paradise as he captures a shot of Eddie Nealy and Helen Mitts. Steve Kobialka and Mike Turner—bosom buddies.

Teresa Bonee and date, Robert Powell, taking a breather between dances.

Alan Riemer gives his date, Ronda Brown, a look of affection.
Baccalaureate—A Blessing

Baccalaureate gives us the opportunity to receive the blessing of the As the time gets closer to graduation, we become more solemn and listen more carefully to the final words from our school and community.
Graduation... At Last!

Waiting To Go Down To The Stadium!

The Faculty Leads Us

We Arrive (Nervously) For The Ceremony
The Sun Shines On Us After An Afternoon Storm

Kevin Mills, Salutatorian.

Rita Mies, Valedictorian.

Mr. Crus Mendoza reads off 150 names without missing a syllable.

Mr. Don Stokesbury gives us his best wishes.

Robert Harrington, class president, gives the senior gift to Mr. Kenneth Tewell, Superintendent of District No. 204.
The outdoor ceremony, almost scuttled by an afternoon thunderstorm, was perfect...in every way. The stadium was crowded with relatives and friends. The speeches were interesting and impressive. And finally, one by one, we were called forward to receive our diploma. K. thru 12 equals a diploma!

We Leave. . . But A Part Of Us Will Stay!

The picture above is a pyramid of erasures collected from the classrooms by the seniors and left to the teachers on the last day of school. It was one last gesture! We leave behind more than the erasures...we leave behind the many events recorded in this book—Totem Pole, 1977.

And we take with us much more. Memories of good friends, good teachers, a good school and school district and lots of good fun. Ten years from now, when we go through this book, we will relive those memories. Thanks for everything! God Bless You!
